

WALKING THE TEXT IN THE PROMISED LAND

- WHAT YOU NEED TO KNOW -

The Nature of this Trip

This trip is designed around the rabbinical approach, in which you will not know ahead of time where we'll be going or when we're getting there. You will be invited to enjoy the journey. In life, we do not know what tomorrow will bring or what God has in mind. We are simply invited to take each moment one step at a time. This part of the rabbinical approach. Also, we will learn with our feet and we will engage the biblical text deeply, employing the lenses of history, geography, cultural backgrounds, language, archaeology and the over-arching narrative flow. So I'll ask you to simply follow me, and I'll do my best to demonstrate what it would be like to follow a rabbi two thousand years ago. And as we walk, we will seek to follow in the footsteps of our Rabbi and Messiah Jesus. For as the text states in 1 John 2:6, "Anyone who claims to follow Christ, must walk as Jesus walked."

Is it Safe to Travel to Israel?

This is inevitably one of the first questions I get asked. If there wasn't an enormously high degree of safety, I would not be leading trips to Israel. I would not want to shoulder that kind of weight. Although it is impossible to promise 100% safety, travel in Israel is very safe. We always travel with an Israeli guide who serves as my assistant. He is always aware of what's going on in the country. If there is even a hint of potential danger, we will simply avoid the area. We do not take chances! Overall, the likelihood of any kind of danger is very, very slim. In fact, everyone who returns from these trips remarks, "I never once felt unsafe." In addition, I have personally lived in Israel and I know the country. We won't go anywhere I wouldn't take my kids!

Typical Day

A normal day begins with a wake up call at 6:00 a.m., breakfast at 6:30, devotions at 6:55, and by 7:10 we're on our way! In order to accomplish what God sets out for us to experience, the majority of our days involve moderate to strenuous hiking. We travel to our various sites by bus where our hikes will begin. It is during these hikes and at these sites where God's word is studied in its historical, cultural, geographical, and Jewish contexts. Lunch tends to fall between 12:30-1:30pm, and will be served on location. Since lunch can come late in the day, it is highly recommended that you carry snacks with you. Eating small snacks throughout the day is best for keeping energy stored up in the body. It is recommended that snacks (without chocolate - it melts) like trail mix, granola bars, nuts, dried fruit, crackers, or protein/energy bars be taken along. At the end of the day, we will arrive at our hotel for a wonderful dinner and welcomed sleep. We stay at hotels with wonderful breakfast and dinner buffets and great rooms. At the end of a long day, we want you to have a great meal, a soothing shower, and a much needed night's rest. We want you to be able to regroup because we're going to do it all over again the next day. Generally speaking, you should be able to get at least 8 hours of sleep per night if you desire.

Heat & Drink

The heat is a very real concern in Israel, no matter what time of year you plan on going. It will be hot! The rainy season is mid-October through mid-April. May through October temperatures will be warm and dry ranging from the high 70's up to 105 degrees (occasionally 110). Lows are usually in the 60's. It is very important that you drink a lot of water everyday (sufficient water will be provided for all daytime excursions). Dehydration develops from an excessive loss of water from the body. Extreme environmental conditions will increase fluid losses (heat, humidity, lack of wind, etc.). It is critical to keep hydrated before, during, and after our daily excursions. A steady intake of fluid is most beneficial. Consuming a large amount of fluid in a short period of time is not the cure for dehydration and is stressful on the body. It is recommended that you bring some kind of powdered electrolyte replenishment mix, such as Gatorade, Powerade, Propel, etc. I usually have one 32 oz bottle of electrolyte drink with me for every hike. It is also recommended that you limit caffeine intake, and you may want to start doing so a week or two before the trip.

Happy Feet

You will need a good, sturdy pair of hiking boots or shoes that have great ankle support. Obtain them well in advance and break in thoroughly before departure. Having a high quality, well broken in pair of boots/shoes is essential for benefiting the most from this experience! Many people wear boots. I normally wear a low-top hiking shoe or an extremely tough trail runner shoe. Please find a boot/shoe that your feet are happy in. Your shoes will be one of the most important items you have for this trip. Extra cushioned insoles are also helpful.

In addition, you may want to steer clear of shoes that are “waterproof” or have GoreTex. These shoes don’t allow your feet to breath, and since it will be hot in Israel, you need your feet to breath. Also, there will likely be times when we get our feet wet. GoreTex or “waterproof” shoes will keep the water (moisture) in and will not allow your feet to dry well. Under these conditions, blisters and Athlete’s foot generally occur.

Physical Requirements & Training

As you get ready for our trip, please understand there is no level ground in Israel, and you should prepare for 5 to 8 miles of strenuous hiking/climbing/walking each day of the trip. Physical training (long before our departure) is a must for this trip. I can’t emphasize this enough. On every trip, I’ve had some admit they didn’t train as much as they should have, and they deeply regret it. The first thing that goes when you become physically tired is your mind. The more physically prepared you are, the better your mind will be. The trip will be more meaningful, educational and fun if you prepare in advance for the activity level you will experience. I highly recommend physical training that includes cardio and strength training. Stair climbing (actual stairs or machine), lunges, bike riding, running, and long walks are all very good. Additionally, doing some hiking and climbing of stairs with your hip pack (including your Bible, notes, water bottles, etc.) is good practice for the body to recognize the additional weight it needs to carry on the trip. To give you some litmus tests to see if you’re able to do this trip, you must be able to: (1) walk/run 1 mile within 13 minutes, (2) walk/run 3 miles within 46 minutes, (3) ascend 20 flights of stairs (240 steps) without stopping, (4) descend 20 flights of stairs (240 steps) without significant joint pain. IF YOU ARE NOT ABLE TO ACCOMPLISH ANY OF THESE, YOU WILL NOT BE READY FOR THIS TRIP!

You should consult your physician concerning these requirements and any medications or conditions which may have an impact on your ability to participate fully. Prescription drugs you anticipate using during the trip should be packed both in your suitcase and your carry-on. We suggest you bring along a written prescription as well, it can be filled if needed. Please contact your health provider to check your coverage when traveling outside the United States. Traveling to the lands of the Bible requires no immunizations though you'll want to be sure your tetanus shot is current.

What to Bring

Please follow carefully the "Suggested Packing List" that you have received. This list will help you know what to bring. Please keep in mind the trip is very casual and expect to wear shorts and a t-shirt everyday. Also, please be prepared to bring a "modesty kit," meaning long pants and something to cover your shoulders, as there are several religious sites that require modest dress. A pair of zip-off pants is helpful on days where pants are required for modesty. More information is provided in the "Suggested Packing List."

Gear and Gadgets

Feel free to bring a digital camera, GoPro, and/or your cell phone for taking pictures. I will ask that cell phones not be used for taking or making calls during the day. And a word of warning, please make sure your camera doesn't control you. Remember, your camera is a servant, not a master. Sometimes people experience an entire trip through the lens of their camera, and they miss so much of the experiences God has for them. Also, due to unfortunate situations in the past, there is absolutely NO recording (audio or video) of any of the teachings during the trip. You can record anything else, but not the teachings. Thank you for your understanding in this matter.

History and Geography

I will introduce you to the basics of historical geography during the course of our trip. It will be helpful to familiarize yourself with some of the basic maps provided in the Maps Section of the study guide (which will be sent to you). What may appear to be cold facts will be very helpful on-site. For further background on geography, look in a good study Bible or Bible atlas. It will help.

What To Read

In preparation for your upcoming Israel study experience, these are the readings I highly recommend. I realize it is a lot - do what you can. It is most important to focus on the readings from the Bible, but the additional readings will be very helpful to you as well.

Hebrew Scriptures: Genesis, Exodus, Deuteronomy, Psalms 120-134, Isaiah (40-66), Malachi
Time permitting: Joshua (1-11), Judges, 1-2 Samuel, 1-2 Kings

New Testament: The Gospels (if limited on time - read Matthew), Acts 1-12

Additional Readings: The Source ~ James Michener (historical fiction ... long but well worth it)
Our Father Abraham ~ Marvin Wilson (Chapters 8-15)

DO NOT watch any of Ray Vander Laan's DVD's before our experience (please trust me on this)

BE SURE TO watch Ray Vander Laan's DVD's AFTER our experience

*If you own or have already seen some of Ray Vander Laan’s videos, that’s great. What I’m asking is for you to refrain from viewing them again prior to the trip. But by all means, watch them again when you return!

Sh’ma

With great confidence I can say there was never a day in the life of Jesus, our Messiah, when he did not lift his voice to God in the saying of the Sh’ma. Although the Sh’ma is longer than what we’ll recite on a daily basis, here is what I need you to memorize for our trip - in both the Hebrew & the English (this is the “Sh’ma” according to Jesus in Matthew 22:34-40). Please note I will be emailing you an audio recording of the Sh’ma roughly six weeks prior to departure so you can hear it audibly.

Sh’ma Yis’ra’eil	Hear, O Israel,
Adonai Eloheinu	the LORD is our God,
Adonai echad.	the LORD alone.
Ve’ahav’ta et Adonai Elohekha	Love the Lord your God
b’khol le’vav’kha	with all your heart
uv’khol naf’she’kha	and with all your soul
uv’khol me’odekha.	and with all your might.
Ve’ahav’ta Le’re’akha Kamokha	And love your neighbor as yourself.

Receiving Your Gear

You will receive your hydration backpack, complete with a study guide, travel Bible, notebook, and luggage tags roughly three weeks before the trip.

Abraham Joshua Heschel on the Bible (this is just bonus):

“Irrefutably, indestructibly, never wearied by time, the Bible wanders through the ages, giving itself with ease to all men [and women ☺], as if it belonged to every soul on earth. It speaks in every language and in every age. It benefits all the arts and does not compete with them. We all draw upon it, and it remains pure, inexhaustible and complete. In three thousand years it has not aged a day. It is a book that cannot die. Oblivion shuns its pages. Its power is not subsiding. In fact, it is still at the very beginning of its career, the full meaning of its content having hardly touched the threshold of our minds; like an ocean at the bottom of which countless pearls lie, waiting to be discovered, its spirit is still to be unfolded. Though its words seem plain and its idiom translucent, unnoticed meanings, undreamed of intimations break forth constantly. More than two thousand years of reading and research have not succeeded in exploring its full meaning. Today it is as if it had never been touched, never been seen, as if we had not even begun to read it.”
